About Planted, not Buried

Planted, not Buried is an organization that welcomes everyone. It is an opportunity for students, athletes, all levels of professionals, and business owners to be empowered, inspired, educated, network, and grow towards their winning season! Together through events, community outreach, apparel, and networking opportunities, the goal is to spread positivity and inspiration to all ages.

PNB embraces the idea that at times we feel like we have been rejected or denied, but in reality we have been planted. No sometimes means not yet. Being denied is sometimes really just a delay, but either way for all of us, in those times we are working towards our winning season to reap what we have sown.

Planted, not Buried is a chance to share resources, advice, updates, events, and connect within a network of other ambitious professionals. We hold volunteer and outreach initiatives plus sell apparel and stationary embodying our messages of positivity. We also have plenty of networking opportunities through our events, slack channel, facebook, twitter and instagram.
